

Love Idioms PDF

Here are some common love idioms:

Head over heels- To be completely and deeply in love with someone.

Love is blind- To love someone regardless of their flaws or shortcomings.

Lovebirds- A term used to describe two people who are deeply in love with each other.

Crazy in love- To be completely and uncontrollably in love with someone.

A match made in heaven- To describe a couple who seem perfect for each other and destined to be together.

Cupid's arrow- A phrase used to describe the feeling of falling in love unexpectedly.

Pitter-patter of the heart- The sound of one's heart beating fast when they are in love.

Love conquers all- To describe the power of love to overcome any obstacle or challenge.

Love at first sight- To describe falling in love with someone at the very first meeting.

Romeo and Juliet- A phrase used to describe a couple who are deeply in love, even if their love is forbidden or faces many obstacles.

Better half- A term used to describe one's partner or spouse who completes them and makes them a better person.

Love triangle- A situation where three people are involved in a romantic relationship.

Tie the knot- To get married and make a commitment to each other for life.

Heartthrob- Someone who is very attractive and has the ability to make people fall in love with them.

Love-hate relationship- A relationship where the two parties have strong feelings of both love and hate towards each other.

Swept off one's feet- To be completely enchanted by someone and unable to resist their charms.

Butterflies in one's stomach- The feeling of nervousness or excitement in the stomach when in love or around someone special.

Smitten- To be completely taken or enamored with someone.

My heart skips a beat- A phrase used to describe a strong emotional reaction to someone you love or find attractive.

Endless love- A term used to describe a love that knows no boundaries and will last forever

Relationship Idioms

Here are some common relationship idioms:

A match made in heaven- A phrase used to describe a couple who are perfect for each other and seem destined to be together.

Break the ice- To start a conversation or relationship with someone you don't know very well.

Tie the knot- To get married and make a commitment to each other for life.

Two peas in a pod- A phrase used to describe two people who are very similar in personality and interests.

Hit it off- To get along with someone very well from the first meeting.

Lovey-dovey- A term used to describe a couple who are very affectionate and loving towards each other.

Third wheel- A person who is not needed or wanted in a relationship or group of three people.

Bitter pill to swallow- A phrase used to describe something unpleasant that must be accepted, usually in a relationship context.

Head over heels- To be completely and deeply in love with someone.

Crossed wires- A situation where there is a misunderstanding or miscommunication in a relationship.

Love triangle- A situation where three people are involved in a romantic relationship.

On the rocks- A phrase used to describe a relationship that is going through a rough patch or is in trouble

Playing hard to get- A strategy used to make oneself more desirable in a relationship by pretending to be disinterested or unattainable.

Love-hate relationship- A relationship where the two parties have strong feelings of both love and hate towards each other.

Walking on eggshells- A phrase used to describe a situation where one must be very careful with their words or actions to avoid upsetting their partner.

Stormy relationship- A phrase used to describe a relationship that is marked by frequent arguments or disagreements.

Opposites attract- A phrase used to describe a relationship where two people with very different personalities or interests are attracted to each other.

Love nest- A term used to describe a place where a couple lives together, especially if it is a new or romantic home.

Sour grapes- A phrase used to describe the attitude of someone who belittles or dismisses something they cannot have, especially in a relationship context.

Better half- A term used to describe one's partner or spouse who completes them and makes them a better person.

Idioms for Someone Special

Here are some common idioms for someone special:

Apple of my eye- A phrase used to describe someone who is very dear and important to you.

Heart and soul- To give all of your love and energy to someone.

Better half- A term used to describe one's partner or spouse who completes them and makes them a better person.

Soul mate- A person with whom you have a deep and natural connection, often in a romantic or spiritual sense.

Treasure- A term used to describe someone who is valuable and precious to you.

My rock- A phrase used to describe someone who is supportive and dependable, especially during difficult times.

My better/more significant half- A term used to describe someone who is an integral part of your life and who you value deeply.

Angel- A term used to describe someone who is kind, caring, and loving, especially in a relationship context.

Light of my life- A phrase used to describe someone who brings joy and happiness into your life.

My heart's desire- A term used to describe someone or something that you want more than anything else.

My knight in shining armor- A phrase used to describe a man who is chivalrous, protective, and willing to fight for you.

My queen/king- A term used to describe someone who is powerful, regal, and deserving of respect and admiration.

Romeo/Juliet- A phrase used to describe a couple who are deeply in love, even if their love is forbidden or faces many obstacles.

Partner in crime- A phrase used to describe someone who you enjoy spending time with and who is willing to join you in all of your adventures.

Self-Love Idioms

Here are some common self-love idioms:

Love yourself first- A phrase used to emphasize the importance of valuing and taking care of oneself before anything else.

To thine own self be true- A phrase from Shakespeare's Hamlet that means to be honest with oneself and stay true to one's own values and beliefs.

Put yourself first- A phrase used to encourage prioritizing one's own needs and desires.

Invest in yourself- A phrase used to encourage self-improvement and personal growth.

Be your own best friend- A phrase used to encourage treating oneself with kindness, compassion, and respect.

Treat yourself- A phrase used to encourage doing something nice for oneself as a form of self-care or self-reward.

Know thyself- A phrase from Greek philosophy that means to have self-awareness and understanding of one's own character and motives.

Self-love is not selfish- A phrase used to emphasize that taking care of oneself is not a negative or selfish act, but rather a necessary aspect of a healthy and fulfilling life.

Inner peace- A term used to describe a state of calmness, contentment, and self-acceptance.

Mind, body, and soul- A phrase used to describe the holistic approach to self-care, which involves nurturing all aspects of oneself.

Beauty comes from within- A phrase used to emphasize the importance of inner beauty and self-love.

Self-respect- A term used to describe the value one places on oneself, including one's own beliefs, boundaries, and dignity.

Confidence is key- A phrase used to emphasize the importance of self-assurance and self-belief in achieving one's goals and living a fulfilling life.

Loving yourself is a revolution- A phrase used to encourage the idea that self-love can be a powerful force for change and growth.

You are enough- A phrase used to emphasize that one's worth and value does not depend on external factors, but rather on one's own inherent qualities and abilities.

Falling In Love Idioms

Here are some common idioms related to falling in love:

Head over heels- A phrase used to describe the feeling of falling deeply in love and being completely smitten.

Love at first sight- A phrase used to describe the experience of falling in love with someone upon first meeting them.

Swept off your feet- A phrase used to describe the feeling of being completely enamored and taken by someone.

Cupid's arrow- A metaphorical term used to describe the feeling of being struck by love, as if by a magical arrow from the Roman god of love, Cupid.

Butterflies in your stomach- A phrase used to describe the fluttery feeling in one's stomach that can occur when falling in love.

Walking on air- A phrase used to describe the feeling of extreme happiness and elation when falling in love.

Love is blind- A phrase used to describe the idea that when one is in love, they may overlook or forgive flaws or red flags in their partner.

Love knows no bounds- A phrase used to emphasize that love can overcome obstacles such as distance, age, or social status.

Love is a two-way street- A phrase used to describe the idea that love requires mutual effort and commitment from both partners.

Crazy in love- A phrase used to describe the intense, overwhelming feeling of being in love.

Love makes the world go round- A phrase used to describe the idea that love is a fundamental force that drives human interactions and relationships.

Love is a battlefield- A metaphorical phrase used to describe the challenges and obstacles that can arise in a romantic relationship.

The love bug- A metaphorical term used to describe the feeling of being infected with the love virus, causing one to fall deeply in love.

Love conquers all- A phrase used to emphasize the power of love to overcome obstacles and challenges.

Bitten by the love bug- A phrase used to describe the sudden and intense feeling of falling in love.

